ALOHA! The Hawaiian Islands are America's own corner of Paradise. There is year round sun, vast stretches of golden beach, crystal clear waters and tropical plants and flowers that splash the landscape with brilliant color. Come away with IONOSPHERE TOURS on a ten-day vacation to the Islands of Hawaii. Forget your troubles and find a few lost parts of yourself as we fly from Atlanta to Honolulu and spend two nights at Waikiki Beach in Honolulu, prior to our cruise on the Norwegian Pride of America. HAWAII - where palm-fringed beaches, tropical sunsets and orchid-scented breezes define paradise! We will see the islands from both land and sea--with the time and opportunity to do both, splendidly. On four islands, and during five ports of call, it will be easy for you to explore all the best Hawaii has to offer.

Pre-Tour Day - Wednesday, October 29 - Late this afternoon we are transported to Atlanta for overnight accommodations near Hartsfield International Airport, due to an early morning flight tomorrow.

Thursday, October 30 - Atlanta – Honolulu, Oahu - Our early morning flight takes us to Honolulu, on the island of Oahu. We have accommodations for the next two nights at the Sheraton Princess Kaiulani Hotel. We'll enjoy island-style hospitality plus stunning views of the Pacific and Honolulu's twinkling city lights. Oahu is the third largest island in the chain of eight islands. You will have free time this evening to explore the area

Friday, October 31 – Honolulu, Oahu - Today is ours to explore Honolulu at our leisure. Maybe we'll want to stroll the beach at Waikiki, or visit the Sea Life Park at Makapuu Point. We may choose to just browse through the many shops near our Hotel. Another option would be a visit to the Polynesian Cultural Center. We can join in the interactive activities and shows in each of the 8 island villages and exhibits. We will watch the Rainbows of Paradise canoe pageant on the lush lagoon winding through the grounds and enjoy Hawaii's best luau experience at the award-winning Ali'i Lu'au dinner and show.

Saturday, November 1 - Honolulu - Set Sail! Included with our transfer to the ship this morning will be a city tour that will visit Pearl Harbor, the USS Arizona National Memorial and the National Cemetery of the Pacific (Punchbowl). By early afternoon we board the "Pride of America". We sail at 7:00 pm, bound for Kahului, Maui. This ship is designed and built with Freestyle Cruising in mind, we will enjoy a wide array of dining options. Freestyle cruising means the choice is ours. Dine where we want and when we want. Freestyle Dining begins in the two main dining rooms, the Liberty or the Skyline, which feature fantastic menus full of a variety of delicious foods. But we can also opt for a romantic dinner for two, or dine before or after the evening's entertainment. We can make reservations, or just wander in to one of the specialty restaurants whenever we are hungry, any time from 5:30 to 10:00 pm. There are 7 restaurants featuring every cuisine from classic French, Italian, Asian, Teppanyaki, Spanish/Tex-Mex, a Steakhouse and Beyond Buffets.

Sunday, November 2 – Kahului, Maui - It's hard to believe that each island is so utterly different, and Maui is no exception. It was voted six years in a row to be the "best island in the world", as well as having some of the world's best beaches, waterfalls and rainforest. Maui also offers world famous lu'aus, including the Pacific Paradise Lu'au. Thanks to our overnight stay, we'll have plenty of time to enjoy this cultural extravaganza. Afterward, we can return to the ship for more fun and relaxation onboard.

Monday, November 3 – Kahului, Maui – (optional tour to Lana'i available)

There's plenty of time today to check out the Maui Ocean Center or the Iao Valley tour. Eco-tourists love the Rainforest Eco-Walk. We sail for Hilo, on the big Island of Hawaii at 6:00 pm. Tonight we can see a fabulous Broadway or Vegas-style show at the Hollywood Theater onboard our ship.

Tuesday, November 4 - Hilo, Hawaii – Evening sail by Mount Kilauea- Thanks to its 128 inches of annual rain, Hilo is a lush, tropical, misty city filled with flowers, trees and Victorian charm. We can't miss the unforgettable Volcanoes National Park and Rainbow Falls tour. There are many optional shore excursions available at each of the ports. At Hilo, we may want to take a thrilling helicopter ride over the Kilauea Volcano. We set sail for Kona, Hawaii at 6:00 pm. Tonight, we may want to enjoy a five-course feast at the Liberty or the Skyline Main Restaurant.

Wednesday, November 5 - Kona, Hawaii - Kealahou Bay at Kailua Kona, is the place where legendary explorer Captain Cook met his end. We may want to sip Hawaii's famous coffee at the Kona Coffee Country Store, see a macadamia nut orchard or take an optional Kamehameha's Legacy tour. The Kahua Ranch Horseback Riding excursion offers breathtaking views of Kona's most beautiful pasturelands. Tonight, our ship sails toward Nawiliwili, Kauai at 6:00 pm.

Thursday, November 6 - Nawiliwili, Kauai - Kauai is the island that many people seek but never find; a stunning and endlessly spectacular haven with a pace all its own. As we approach beautiful Nawiliwili Bay, we see at once why Kauai is called "The Garden Island". We may want to enjoy a journey to Waimea Canyon or perhaps a Kiu Kayak Adventure. Back aboard ship, we can relax with a massage at the Body Waves Spa, have dinner at the Asian Fusion Restaurant and get ready to dance the night away. Our ship will spend the night here.

Friday, November 7 - Nawiliwili, Kauai – Scenic Cruising- Today we can wake up early and catch the magnificent Wailua River and Fern Grotto excursion, or perhaps an exciting helicopter tour of Waimea Canyon and the Na Pali Coast. We'll sail by mid-afternoon, giving us time to enjoy Pride of Hawaii's swimming pools, hot tubs and spectacular views of Oahu's and Maui's coastlines. The evening could bring a Vegas-style show and dinner at the French Restaurant. We depart for Honolulu at 2:00 pm.

Saturday, November 8 - Honolulu, Oahu – Home

As we disembark the fantastic "Norwegian Pride of America" early this morning, we'll reminisce about all the beauty we've seen, as we prepare to depart for the Honolulu Airport, for our flight to Atlanta.
